

Emotional disclosure

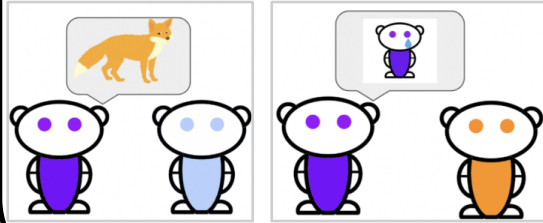

Social closeness

Study 1 • Closeness from disclosure

The protagonist discloses an EMOTION or a FACT to two others.

Which of the two is socially closer to the protagonist?

Who is Riley's best friend?

Who will Riley share candy with?

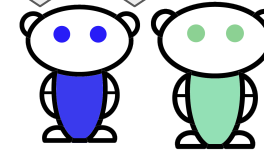

Who will Riley share their ice cream with?

Study 2 • Disclosure from closeness

The protagonist sees their friend or best friend.

Who do people think will be told the EMOTION vs. the FACT?

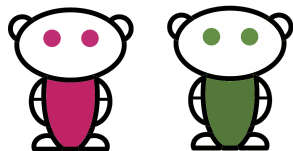

Did Owen tell their friend/best friend about the fact or how they were feeling at school?

Study 3 • Disclosure to build closeness

The protagonist wants to become friends with a stranger (3A) or best friends with a friend (3B).

Should the protagonist disclose the EMOTION or the FACT?

Should Avery tell them about the fact or how they were feeling at school?

Study 4 • Asymmetric relationships

The protagonist sees their mother or a friend's mother

Who do people think will be told the EMOTION vs. the FACT? What about when its the adults who could share?

Did Skyler tell their mother/friend's mother about the fact or how they were feeling at school? (4a) Did Skyler's mother/friend's mother tell Skyler about the fact or how they were feeling sad at work? (4b)
